

CLAS 2553

Archaeology of Egypt

Egypt from the rise of civilization to the Roman era. This course examines the social and political institutions of Egypt from the perspective of archaeology and art history, including cultural and political relations with other major civilizations of the ancient world.
