

CLAS 2573

The Homeric Vision

A study of the cosmic vision of the relationship between gods and heroes in Homer's epic poems, the Iliad and the Odyssey, that informed the Greek institutions of polis (state) and oikos (family), paying special attention to the concept of gender and the status and role of men and women.

Cross-Listed Course for English and WGST.