

HIST 1613

Ideas that Moved the Modern World

Spanning the 18th Century Enlightenment to the Era of Globalization, this course introduces students to the most influential ideas of the modern era as well as the social movements they produced. Among the topics explored are romanticism, nationalism, conservatism, socialism, irrationalism, Freudianism, and Nazism. Our focus is on the political ideologies that defined the landscape of the 20th century.
