

HIST 2353

Maritime Provinces since 1867

---

The development of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island in the post-Confederation period. Maritime adjustment to political union and its role within Confederation will be examined. Special emphasis will be placed on social, religious, economic and political trends, and the issue of ethnic assimilation and survival will be addressed.

---