

HIST 2543

Introduction to Europe: Since 1500

European history surveyed from 1500 to the present. Topics include the rise of religious division; the impact of reason and revolution; the evolution of the European nation-state; the rise and fall of European cultural, economic, and political dominance globally; the division of the continent and the establishment of the federal "super-state" after 1945.
