

HIST 2773

Pre-Confederation Canada

An introduction to Canadian History focusing on Aboriginal societies, New France and British North America to 1867. In addition to general knowledge of Canadian history, students will be introduced to the variety of historical theories and methodologies that characterize the field.
