

HIST 3823

Global History of Communism

This course surveys the history of communism from its origins in revolutionary France through the emergence of classical Marxism, to the Russian and Chinese revolutions and the spread of communism across one third of the globe's population on four continents. The history of communism as an idea will be considered alongside the reality of life for millions under Communism.
