

CLAS 2283

Heroes in Classical Myth

A study of the hero and heroine in Greek and Roman mythology through art and literature. From legends to prehistoric Greece and the epic cycles of the eighth century through to the refashioning of the hero and heroine in Roman myth, this course emphasizes contemporary approaches to interpretation of the heroic quest.
