

CLAS 3113

Roman Law and Society

---

A seminar course on Roman law from the earliest legal texts to their codification under the emperor Justinian. Topics include the development of private and criminal law; treatises of the Roman jurists; the role of law in shaping social, political, and economic life of the Roman world; and the influence on later western legal systems.

---