

HIST 2213

World War Two

This course examines the origins, progress and consequences of World War Two. While strategy and battlefield tactics form a major focus on the course, other topics such as the Holocaust, the air war, the war at sea, the global influence of the war, the evolution of strategy and tactics and the impact of new weapons.
